

Energy Security 2011 – Challenges of the Hungarian EU Presidency

Time: 7 May 2010, 13:00 – 18:00

Place: Art'otel, Bem rakpart 16-19., Budapest, Hungary

13:00-13:10 Opening remarks: István Gyarmati, President and CEO, ICDT

13:10-13:20 Opening speech: Balázs Somogyi, Director, GE Energy Infrastructure

13:20-13:40 Keynote speech: Jiří Schneider, Program Director, Prague Security Studies Institute
„Lessons Learned from the Czech and Swedish Presidencies”

13:40-15:10 Panel I: The Role of EU Presidencies – How Much Impact They Can and Should Make?

Moderated by István Gyarmati, President and CEO, ICDT

Edit Herczog, Member of the European Parliament, S&D

Kitti Nyitrai, Policy Officer, Energy Policy & Security Supply Unit, European Commission

Nick Sitter, Head of Department, Department of Public Policy, Central European University

15:10-15:30 Coffee break

15:30-17:00 Panel II: Energy Security as a Theme during the Hungarian EU Presidency

Moderated by Anita Orbán, Special Advisor, ICDT

Dániel Antal, Chairperson, Energy & Environment Committee, American Chamber of Commerce in Hungary

András Deák, Research Director, Center for EU Enlargement Studies, Central European University

Miklós Hegedűs, Managing Director, GKI Energy Research and Consulting Ltd.

László Varró, Vice President for Strategy Development, MOL Plc.

17:00-18:00 Reception